

Trident Building Consultancy
10 King William Street
London
EC4N 7TW

T 020 7280 8181
F 020 7280 8199
www.tridentbc.com

Stuart J Sword

BSc (Hons) MRICS, Associate Director

trident

Summary

Stuart is an Associate Director at Trident having joined in August 2004 as a Senior Surveyor and promoted in November 2004.

Stuart has experience in a wide range of building consultancy advice gained from working from both large and small practices. Particular experience in building consultancy advice and the successful implementation and delivery of building projects within both the public and private sectors.

Experience

- Lead Project Manager on the £2m refurbishment of the grade II listed Nigeria High Commission in Fleet Street, London. Works including external fabric repair and redecoration and complete internal strip-out and refurbishment.
- Lead Project Manager on the HLF £3m refurbishment of the grade II listed Foundling Museum.
- Lead Project Manager on the £2m creation of the Hyman Kreitman Research Centre at Tate Britain.
- Lead Designer and Contract Administrator on a £1m phased external repairs and redecoration package of individual properties at St. Christopher's Place, London.
- Project management and contract administration under the OGC framework for the central government sector including the National Probation Directorate and the Employment Service under a measured term commission. Responsible for alteration, refurbishment and maintenance projects for offices and job centres throughout London and the South East Region on a collective value of over £10m.

Direct dial: 020 7280 8156
Email: stuart.sword@tridentbc.com

Education University of Brighton BSc (Hons), Building Surveying

Specialist skills Design, specification and project management of repair, fit-out and new build projects for public and private sectors clients

Additional information RICS Associate Member 1996
RICS Building Surveyor Professional
RICS APC Assessor 2008

